

Article XXXII
Equal Opportunity Data

The University administration shall annually publish the following data:

- a. A count by gender and ethnicity of the number of faculty in each department and school/college.
- b. A count by gender and ethnicity of the number of academic staff in each classification and school/college/division.
- c. The percentage of female and/or minority group members in the national pool by major academic discipline if such information is reasonably available.